Enterprise Knowledge Assistant

Company Remote Work Policy

Employees can work remotely up to two days per week, subject to manager approval. Employees must follow company security policies.

Annual Leave Policy

Employees are entitled to annual leave.
All annual leave requests require approval from the employee's reporting manager.

Health Insurance Policy

Employees receive health insurance benefits.

The company provides medical coverage to eligible employees and their dependents.

Employee Training Policy

The company provides technical training to employees. Training programs help employees improve technical skills and professional knowledge.